Civil Action No. 23 CV 1104

FIRST AMENDED JOINT STIPULATED FACTS

2023 redistricting process

1. The co-Chairs of the Senate Redistricting and Elections Committee from January 2023 to December 2024 were Senator Ralph Hise, Senator Warren Daniel, and Senator Paul Newton (hereafter the “Senate Redistricting Chairs”).

2. The Chair of the House Redistricting Committee from January 2023 to December 2024, was then-Representative Destin Hall.

3. On or about April 28, 2023, the co-Chairs of the Senate Redistricting and Elections Committee understood that they would need to finalize any draft maps by mid-October 2023 to meet the State Board of Elections’ deadlines for the primaries the following year.

4. On April 28, 2023, following the North Carolina Supreme Court’s decision in Harper v. Hall, 384 N.C. 2 (Harper III), then-House Speaker Tim Moore issued the following statement regarding redistricting: “We will fulfill our constitutional duty to redraw state house, senate and congressional maps.” NAACPPX101.

5. The Senate Redistricting Chairs began developing criteria to draw new Senate and Congressional plans in the summer of 2023.

6. In August 2023, Speaker Hall retained Blake Springhetti to draw draft House and Congressional plans and provided him criteria titled “Guidance of Drawing State House and Congressional Districts.” JX039, 044.

7. The Senate Redistricting Chairs decided not to engage a third-party mapdrawer to develop draft Senate and Congressional plans, and instead drew the plans themselves with the technical support of partisan and non-partisan staff.

8. The General Assembly passed H.B. 259, the 2023 Appropriations Act, on September 22, 2023, which was enacted into law on October 3, 2023, after it failed to receive the Governor's signature.

9. On September 18, 2023, the Senate Committee on Redistricting and Elections noticed three public meetings:

- a. A meeting at the College of Albemarle in Elizabeth City on Monday, September 25, 2023, at 4 PM, see JX066;
- b. A meeting at the Hickory Campus of Appalachian State University on Tuesday, September 26, 2023, at 4 PM, see JX068;
- c. A meeting at the Legislative Office Building in Raleigh on Wednesday, September 27, 2023, at 4 PM. See JX070.

10. The time, location, and number of these meetings were agreed upon by the Senate Redistricting Chairs in coordination with House Redistricting Committee Chair Hall.

11. On or about September 23, 2023, the North Carolina General Assembly also posted a public comment portal for redistricting. JX065.

12. On September 25, 2023, a group of more than 50 public interest organizations issued a public letter to the co-Chairs of the Senate Standing Committee on Redistricting and Elections, Chair of the House Standing Committee on Redistricting, and legislative leadership regarding the public redistricting process. JX046.

13. The transcript for the Elizabeth City September 25, 2023, public meeting is in JX060.

14. The transcript for the Hickory September 26, 2023, public meeting is in JX059.

15. The transcript for the Raleigh September 27, 2023, public meeting is in JX058.

2021 Redistricting Process

37. Following the 2020 Census, due to an increase in the State's population, North Carolina was apportioned 14 congressional districts, an increase of one district from the apportionment following the 2010 Census.

38. During the 2021 redistricting cycle, data from the 2020 Census was delayed due to the COVID-19 pandemic and was ultimately released on August 12, 2021.

39. On August 5, 2021, the General Assembly’s Senate Redistricting and Elections Committee and the House Redistricting Committee convened a Joint Meeting to begin the discussion on the redistricting process. Harper I, 2022-NCSC-17, ¶ 14; JX244; JX245.

40. On August 9, 2021, the chairs of the Joint Redistricting Committee released its “2021 Joint Redistricting Committee Proposed Criteria” for public comment and committee debate. Harper I, 2022-NCSC-17, ¶ 14; NAACPPX251.

41. On August 10, 2021, the Joint Committee held a public meeting to receive public comment on the proposed redistricting criteria.

42. On August 12, 2021, the Joint Committee adopted the final redistricting criteria following amendments. JX224; NAACPPX248; NAACPPX249; NAACPPX250. The Joint Committee also debated a public hearing schedule. JX242.

43. In September 2021, the Joint Committee held thirteen public hearings across ten counties around the state. JX241.

44. Several hearings allowed virtual testimony and were held outside of business hours.

45. On October 5, 2021, the House and Senate redistricting committees convened separately to begin the redistricting process.

46. Proposed versions of the congressional and House maps were filed on October 28 and 29, 2021. A proposed version of the Senate map was filed on October 29, 2021.

47. Four additional public comment sessions were held after maps were released: two in person in Raleigh, and two online via Webex. JX238 (10/25 In-person); JX237 (10/25 Virtual); JX236 (10/26 In-person); JX235 (10/26 Virtual).

48. A public comment portal was also made available on the General Assembly's website.

49. Policies regarding public access to mapdrawing software, public comments, and legislator-drawn maps were also shared by the General Assembly. See JX239.

50. The 2021 State House plan was filed on October 28, 2021, and state Senate and federal Congressional plans were filed the next day.

51. All three plans were passed on November 4, 2021. Harper I, ¶ 18; JX228; JX229; JX230. The North Carolina Supreme Court subsequently struck down all three 2021 plans as unlawful partisan gerrymanders on February 4, 2022, with the Court issuing its opinion on February 14, 2022. See Harper v. Hall, 868 S.E.2d 499 (N.C. 2022) (Harper I), aff'd sub nom. Moore v. Harper, 600 U.S. 1 (2023). The North Carolina Supreme Court's February 4, 2022, order gave the General Assembly until February 18, 2022, to enact remedial plans and to submit those plans to the Wake County Superior Court for review. Harper, Feb. 4, 2022 Order at ¶¶ 6, 8-9.

52. The General Assembly submitted proposed remedial plans for the state house, state senate, and congress to the Wake County Superior Court. On February 23, 2022, that court issued an order approving the state house and state senate remedial plans, but rejecting the remedial congressional. See Harper v. Hall, 2022-NCSC-17, ¶ 166; Harper, Feb. 23, 2022 Order at ¶ 34.

53. The 2022 congressional elections were conducted under a court-ordered map. The 2022 legislative elections were conducted under remedial plans passed by the General Assembly.

54. In December 2022, the North Carolina Supreme Court decided Harper v. Hall, 881 S.E.2d 156 (N.C. 2022) (Harper II). Harper II affirmed the Wake County Superior Court's holding against the remedial congressional plan and its holding approving the remedial state house plan, but reversed that court's holding approving the state senate plan.

55. The General Assembly petitioned for a rehearing of Harper, which was granted. The North Carolina Supreme Court vacated the court-ordered map and allowed the General Assembly to draw new congressional, House, and Senate maps. See Harper v. Hall, 886 S.E.2d 393 (N.C. 2023) (Harper III).

Elections (formerly the Senate Redistricting and Elections Committee) along with Defendants Hise and Daniel.

86. In May of 2025, Defendant Members of the State Board of Elections Kevin Lewis and former Chair Alan Hirsch were replaced by now-Chair Francis X. De Luca and Member Robert Rucho. Defendant Executive Director of the State Board of Elections Karen Brinson Bell was replaced in May of 2025 with current Executive Director Sam Hayes. As these parties were all named in their official capacities, the successor individuals are automatically substituted for the former officeholders pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 25(d).

Additional Joint Stipulations

87. All parties stipulate to the authenticity of information on the North Carolina State Board of Elections, the United States Census Bureau, and the North Carolina General Assembly websites.

88. All parties stipulate and agree to the authenticity of historical election results publicly available at the website of the North Carolina State Board of Elections, including all election results from 2012 to 2024, sorted by precinct, available on the North Carolina State Board of Elections' website.

89. All parties stipulate that if an expert witness testifies live at trial, that expert's full reports will be admitted as exhibits, subject to any Daubert challenges.

90. All parties stipulate that evidence offered by any party is admissible in both Civil Action No. 23 CV 1057 and Civil Action No. 23 CV 1104, absent an objection at the time the evidence is offered.

91. State Senate Candidate for Senate District 3 in 2022, Valerie Jordan, is African American.
